ACADEMIC STATUS

Unless otherwise noted, an individual is academically eligible to continue at the University. A cumulative grade point average of less than 2.0 at the undergraduate level or less than 3.0 at the graduate level is considered academic probation.

ACCREDITATION AND INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education, American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business, National League for Nursing, Committee on Allied Health Education and Accreditation, American Medical Association, American Physical Therapy Association, American Speech and Hearing Association, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, National Association of Schools of Music, Association of State Colleges and Universities, American Association of University Women, Association for Childhood Education International, Council of Graduate Schools, National Council of University Research Administrators and American Association of Collegiate Registrar's and Admissions Officers.

COURSE NUMBERS

Each course has a four-digit number. The first digit indicates the level of the course: 1- Freshman; 2-Sophomore; 3-Junior; 4-Senior; 5 and up-Graduate. The second digit specifies the number of credit hours for the course. The third and fourth digits distinguish the course from other courses within the department.

NOTE: Courses with the prefix IEP and/or UNIV are preparatory courses. IEP and UNIV courses do not count for degree credit and are not used in computing the cumulative grade point average toward earning any degree from the University.

FRAUDULENT TRANSCRIPT

Act 351 of 1991 (78th General Assembly, State of Arkansas) prohibits the making, forging, or counterfeiting of a transcript of a postsecondary educational institution and prohibits a person from using, offering, or presenting a fraudulent transcript of a postsecondary education institution. A person who violates any provision of this ACT shall be subject to criminal prosecution.

HISTORY

The institution was established in 1907 by the General Assembly as the Arkansas State Normal School. In 1925 the name was changed to the Arkansas State Teachers College, in 1967 to the State College of Arkansas, and in 1975 the institution became the University of Central Arkansas.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 prohibits the release of this record or disclosure of its contents to any third party without the written consent of the student.

REPEATED COURSE DESIGNATION

A number 1 or letter A - indicates the course was repeated for grade improvement. The course counts only once for degree credit, and averages in the grade point calculation.

A number 2 or letter E - indicates the course was repeated and the first grade forgiven, and does not calculate in the grade point average.

TRANSCRIPTS FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS

UCA does not release documents (including transcripts) received from other institutions.

UNIT OF CREDIT

The unit of credit is the semester hour.
